

LET'S LOOK AT THE WOLF

Age: Adults

Objectives: Senior citizens will be able to

1. go to the public library and check out books about wolves.
2. go to a classroom and assist a teacher when he/she teaches a unit on wolves.
3. give an informational talk to another group of senior citizens at their meal site or to residents in a retirement home.
4. get involved with the Timber Wolf Alliance .

Method:

1. Go to your local library and check out books on wolves or invite TWA to give a talk. Also, find a poem, story, song or picture about wolves. Come together with a group of people and have individuals recite a poem, tell a story, compose a song, or draw a picture about wolves.
2. As a group share what each individual believed as a child and what he/she believes now about wolves. Or share stories about people they knew who bountied wolves or have seen wolves.

Optional: Contact TWA to learn how to become part of our Speaker's Bureau.

Discussion Questions: How do we learn more about the wolf?

What is being done to increase public education about the wolf? What can we do to help the wolf? How do we get involved with the Timber Wolf Alliance?

Possible Learning Materials:

- TWA presentation
- Wolves: Behavior, Ecology, and Conservation by Mech & Botini
- Of Wolves and Men. by Berry Lopez
- Wolves of Minong, by Allen
- Recovery of Gray Wolves in the Great Lakes Region of the United States By Van Deelen
- Subscribe to the International Wolf Center magazine
- Watch "Wolves at our Door"

Originally Produced by the Timber Wolf Alliance and Ottawa National Forest.

Updated by Anegla Lee Rivera Rautmann